

Training Courses

AADS strive to deliver an exceptional customer service by:

- Understanding clients' needs •
- Adapt to each customer's requirements by delivering tailor-made courses •
 - Providing a dedicated team of experienced trainers •
 - Delivering courses in multiple languages •
- Flexibility, location, content, number of participants and duration can vary on a case-by-case basis •
- Maximising practical hands-on time •

Driver Training

The main benefits of this course are:

- Increasing lifespan of vehicles •
- Save on fuel and maintenance costs •
 - Enhance safety •
- Improve convoy driving skills to better react against threats in hostile environments •

We achieve them through:

- Vehicle familiarisation •
- Improving drivers on and off road driving knowledge •
 - Understanding of vehicle recovery techniques •

BASIC AND ADVANCE LEVEL OF TRAINING COURSES AVAILABLE

Technical and Maintenance Training

The main benefits of this course are:

- Extending the life cycle of your vehicles •
- Making your vehicles safer to drive •
- Saving on maintenance costs •
- Enhance the independence of running your fleet •

We achieve them through:

- Improving the technical knowledge of your personnel on vehicle characteristics •
- Preventive maintenance training •
- Familiarisation with diagnostic equipment and procedures
- Training of the daily check procedures and its benefits •

Fleet and Workshop Training

The main benefits of this course are:

- Extending the life cycle of your vehicles •
- Positive control over running and financial costs of your fleet •
- Positive impact on road safety •
- Enhance the independence while running your fleet •
- Decreasing the VOR (Vehicle Off the Road) status •

We achieve them through:

- Training your drivers, technicians and fleet related managers •
- Training of daily check procedures •
- Understanding good fleet management practices •

AADS

Global Distributor to Government Organisations